Rooms for light housekeeping are in constant demand. Every issue of the Gazette carries a number of light housekeeping ads on the Classified page.

The Gazette notices that practically every advertiser in this line receives from 6 to 25 or 30 replies and some times even more. It is also noted that the advertiser who makes sure his own ad describes his property thoroughly, secures a tenant quicker than those who do not describe it.

New York—The children of Pauline, Benjamin, with the exception of Mrs. Enrico Caruso, who is in Italy, will confer here this week to decide whether or not to accept an offer of the will of their father, which cut them off with $1 each and denounced them as having acted as children, rather than as parasites.

BOOSTERS IN BIG SHOWING AT FAIR

Thousands Given Invitation to City's Harvest Festival, Sept. 22-23.

Janesville, in the form of 100 enthusiastic automobile parties, introduced itself to Wisconsin at the state fair Tuesday. The booster club rubbed shoulders with the state and extended an invitation to the harvest festival, Sept. 22 and 23.

Although but 31 registered cars started out in a batch at 7:30 a. m. Tuesday, the balance of Milwaukee went singly to avoid the dust. Others left from Milton and other points in Rock, making more than 150 motorists.

Milwaukee waited in anticipation for the motorcade. When Robert F. Buggs drove his pilot car into the grounds, a Cream City policeman turned to his command to remain.

"Here comes Janesville. Make ready for a hundred of them. Some gang!"

Circulars Are Distributed

The route was through Milton, Whitewater, Palmyra, Dodge, Waukesha and West Allis, direct to the state fair. There were made at Whitewater and Waukesha.

Each town was given a concert of klaxons as the cars rolled through. Circulars boosting the festival were tossed to the streets and into farmyards.

It was Ford day at the fair. It was because of this fact that Mr. Buggs was able to aid the local Chamber of Commerce and procure a central parking space at the fair for all Janesville cars—Fords and otherwise.

Janesville Has Headquarters

All of the head cars carried signs on the rear and sides advertising the festival.

Headquarters for the booster club was at the dining hall of the St. Vincent de Paul society. At the grounds, the booster club entertained and spent the day in a most enjoyable manner. They were given dinner and supper at the St. Vincent de Paul building.

The Janesville people returned according to their own desire. Many remained until the last of the fireworks at 10 p. m. Milwaukee time.

The two Ford service cars were used twice on the booster trip to repair blowouts.

The flying boat was viewed by scores of people Wednesday afternoon. It is a three passenger combined boat and airplane and is the first of its kind ever in Janesville.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE WITHOUT DRASTIC ACTION, U. S. HOPE

GOVERNMENT WAITING AS RAIL STRIKE HOLDS FAST.

CONGRESS PASSIVE

Won't Take Initiative in Legislation to Relieve Public Distress.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

Copyright, 1922, by The Janesville Gazette.

Washington—Hope springs eternal in the governmental mind, and just now that hope is administration policy, namely that the industrial situation will somehow right itself without drastic action, legislative or otherwise.

No definite alternative has been decided upon. Talk of seizure of mines and railroads is still talk. Congress is quietly steering the safe course of keeping hands off while the chief executive and his cabinet officers endeavor to use their influence to bring about meetings, conferences, discussions and all kinds of peace overtures. As for legislation until Mr. Harding demands it, congress will not take the initiative.

Government Waiting.

In a nutshell, the whole governmental attitude is one of waiting.

Michigan Fruit Rots on Ground; Freight Too High

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Frankfort, Mich.—Thousands of bushels of apples, pears and berries are rotting beneath the trees in Benzie county orchards.

Fruit growers say the transportation costs are so high and market prices so low that the freight amounts to nearly as much and in some instances, more, than the fruit will bring when delivered to market.

One grower said he shipped 40 bushels of Duchesne apples across Lake Michigan to a Wisconsin commission man, and received a check for three cents after the freight, and brokerage charges had been deducted. Another, shipping 50 bushels, reported getting a check for five cents.

A third was not so fortunate. After shipping a large complement of apples he received a bill from the commission man for 18 cents to make up a deficit in transportation costs.

JOHNSON LEADING CALIFORNIA VOTE

Early Returns Show Substantial Margin for Present Senator.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

San Francisco—On the face of returns early Wednesday from California primary election Tuesday, U. S. Senator Hiram Johnson was leading his opponent, C. C. Moore, for the republican nomination for U. S. senator.

Returns from 1,353 precincts out of a total of 2,606 in the state gave Johnson 58,265 and Moore 58,423.

P. W. Richardson, state treasurer, was leading Governor Stephens for the republican gubernatorial nomination by a small margin.

Rankin Leading in Montana Primary Vote

Helena, Mont.—Primary returns gave Wellington D. Rankin, state attorney general, a margin over Congressman Carl Riddick, federal republican nomination for U. S. senator.

One hundred and twenty three precincts in the state gave Burton J. Wheeler, Butte, a comfortable lead for the democratic nomination for the senate with 2,365 votes to 1,015 for Tom Stout of Lewistown, his nearest opponent.

Another Primary in South Carolina Seen

Columbia, S. C.—A second primary to nominate a candidate for governor seemed certain Wednesday when approximately 100,000 votes, counted in Tuesday's democratic primary, indicated no candidate had received the necessary majority. Cole L. Blaise, a former governor, was leading Thomas McLeod, former lieutenant governor, by more than 1,300 votes. An event of another primary, possibly another primary, was expected.

WOULD PUT BONUS MEASURE BEYOND PRESIDENT'S VETO

USE OF FOREIGN DEBT INTEREST SOUGHT AS ANTIDOTE.

PASS AMENDMENT

Land Reclamation Approved; Lenroot, LaFollette in Opposition Vote.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Washington—In the first vote of the day, the senate rejected 44 to 27 the bonus amendment proposing to pay the soldiers half in cash and half in certificates of indebtedness, payable in five years. Party lines again were evident, 21 republicans voting for the amendment, and 31 republicans and 13 democrats opposing it.

BULLETIN.

Washington—The big question Wednesday in the minds of friends of the bonus was whether the senate provision for paying it out of the interest on the foreign debt would not be beyond the risk of presidential veto. Most of them appeared more hopeful, but foes of the measure seemed undisturbed.

Proponents recalled that the president had suggested to the members of the ways and means committee early in the year that the house defer action for a time, in the expectation that interest payments from Great Britain would begin to come in. On the other hand, foes recalled that the first time the executive had been insistent that the financing of the bonus should not be made dependent on returns from the foreign debt, until they were actually in hand.

Not only did interest on the debt have been received, but it has been sold often in senate debate that Great Britain had arranged to begin payment this year. Even if the bonus should become a law by Oct. 1, it would not begin to pay the treasury until next year.

Disappointed over their failure to get a vote Tuesday, senate leaders early in the day were discussing as to when final action would come. Five amendments still are pending and, in addition, half a dozen or more senators, some of them just back from campaign, have said to speak against the bonus and land reclamation amendment was approved Tuesday, 43 to 26. The roll call against the amendment followed: Republicans—Ball, Brandegee, Cull, Cummings, Curtis, Ellinger, Frelinghuysen, Hale, Kelllogg, La Follette, Lenroot, Lodge, McCumber, McKeeler, MacLean, Sutherland, Townsend, Watson, Ind. and Willis; Democrats—Cory, Glass, McKellar, Robinson, and Williams, 19. Total 26.

Lose Hope of Rescue for Miners

Jackson, Cal.—Hope of rescue for the prisoners of the Argonaut mine, worked desperately, battered away at the wall of steel that separates the Keeney mine from the Argonaut at the 3,400 foot level. Beyond that wall are the 47 who have waited helplessly since fire above them cut off their escape at midnight Sunday.

Men from the United States bureau of mine rescue crew have been going down in the burning mine in relays. Wednesday morning they reported they had again gained the old level, from which the crew was driven Tuesday night. The smoke was so intense there and the fire was reported raging fiercely below that point.

The fire, it is said, is gradually creeping up the shaft.

Seizure of Mines Urged by Blaine

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Madison—Gov. J. J. Blaine of Wisconsin appealed to President Harding Wednesday to ask authority of congress to take over and operate the coal mines of the nation and the coal carrying railroads as a necessary step to avert the possible "fatal" consequences that are sure to come to the people of this state unless they get coal now.

"This power can be exercised and the movement of coal to the northwest started within 48 hours," Gov. Blaine telegraphed to the president, saying that "the duty and responsibility, Mr. President, is in your hands."

The governor asked President Harding whether the federal government was "important and helpless in the grip of the coal barons, or whether it will assert its power to protect its people."

Following is the message sent by the Wisconsin governor to the president: "There appears to be no hope for the northwest to get coal. Industries will be compelled in a few days to close, throwing out of employment hundreds of thousands of men. The furnace fires in the homes and institutions must be started within three weeks and there is no coal."

"With hundreds of thousands of men suffering from unemployment, the pinch of winter without coal may involve the most fatal consequences. We not only face a crisis, but a tragedy is staring us in the face. Is the federal government impotent and helpless in the grip of the coal barons, or will the federal government assert its power to protect its people? Congress is in session and I beg of you to immediately ask congress for full power to take over and operate the coal mine and coal carrying railroads. This power can be exercised and the movement of coal to the northwest started within 48 hours."

"The duty and responsibility, Mr. President, is in your hands. I beg of you to assert at once and avert the possible fatal consequences that are sure to come to our people unless they get coal now."

STRIKE VIOLENCE BLAINE FLAYS DRY STILL CONTINUES LEAGUE AT FAIR

Unauthorized Walkouts on Three Roads Ended; Probe Wrecks.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Chicago—Continued bomb outrages and other forms of violence, inquiries into wrecks and alleged sabotage plots; settlement of unauthorized walkouts by trainmen on the Chicago and Alton; Elgin, Joliet and Eastern, and Missouri Pacific, and an appeal to congress by railway maintenance of way employees for an amendment to the transportation act assuring a "living wage" for railway workers, featured the first daily chapter of history of the nationwide railroad strike Wednesday.

Meanwhile, chiefs of the "big four" transportation brotherhoods meeting at Cleveland asserted that they would not consent to any compromise that would leave the shopmen's strike unchanged.

The end of the tie-up on the Chicago and Alton came when striking trainmen at Slater, Mo., agreed to return to work.

Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the railroad labor board, announced at the hearing of the demands of the maintenance of way men on Monday that 100 roads for an increase in minimum rates of pay, that no decision in the case would be rendered until all members of the labor group of board members have returned to Chicago.

TOURIST CAMP HAS SUCCESSFUL YEAR

City's First Experience With Campers' Park Works Out Well.

As August, the month of vacationing, draws to a close an increase in the number of tourists passing through Janesville daily and taking advantage of the free tourist camp on North Washington street, is noted. During the past week, the number of foreign tourists has increased, according to Peter O. Champion, police officer stationed at Main and Milwaukee streets.

"I have spent my first vacation in Wisconsin," said P. G. Boyer, Tulsa, Okla., Tuesday at the tourist camp, "and I know that for sheer beauty, roads, and general tourist conditions no other state can be compared with it."

The tourist camp has been a decided success and a real advantage to the city, has been fully proved. Not only have the grounds been used as a camping spot, but they have been used for a picnic ground. Throughout the summer months, several celebrations have been staged at the grounds, including a picnic of the local baseball team. The baseball diamond is easily the most popular field in Janesville and is the scene of the Black Cat baseball games.

Water Supply Warned
Most of the campers at the grounds spoke favorably of the accommodations afforded, but some constructive criticism regarding the water supply was heard. The most prevalent complaint was that the water supply was not sufficient to secure a drink of cold water due to the depth of the Pines pavilion where it is connected. Others complained because the lights could not be turned off at night.

Harold Lloyd to Appear at Apollo

The booking of "Grandma's Boy," starring Harold Lloyd, at the Apollo theatre for four days starting Monday, has created much interest. This is Lloyd's first live-reel production, his former pictures all being two and three part comedies, and he is said to be his best.

Harold Lloyd is rapidly reaching the point in the movies where he will take the place once occupied by Charlie Chaplin, but left empty by him by his failure to produce more than one picture a year, and that one only mediocre.

Charlie Chaplin in foreign countries is looked upon as the symbol of American humor. This standard will soon be changed for in this country, Harold Lloyd is considered representative of American humor—clean, fast-moving and outright.

DEMOCRATS URGED TO VOTE, TUESDAY

Danger Exists of Not Enough Ballots to Nominate Ticket.

Scores of Rock county and Janesville democrats have received letters from John P. Hume, state chairman of the democratic party, urging them to rally to the support of their party primary day and assure the names of the democratic candidates being placed on the official election ballot in November. At least 35,000 votes must be cast for the Democratic candidates to insure their placing on the state tickets and according to Hume there is a serious danger of their not getting the necessary number of votes in the primary. A great many of our democratic men and women, said Hume, "are unaware of the danger of not getting the necessary votes in the primary and thinking of voting the republican primary where there are more contests. They should be informed of the danger of the democratic ticket as we need their votes. We believe that with the split in the republican party we will be able to elect a great many of our democratic friends to the Wisconsin legislature. We hope that no democrat will desert his party at the primary, but we hope that he will settle their practical rights."

AT THE MYERS.

A thrilling mystery picture, "What Will the Witnesses Say," is a high state of excitement, is being shown at the Myers. It is "Find the Woman," starring Norma Talmadge. The picture is a masterpiece of a theatrical agent, and the compilation in it of four people, to all of whom, during the course of the picture, the danger of death points. But of course, it turns out to be none of the four. It is a coincidence that the lives and events of the four people are linked together, while they themselves are brought together at the end, where the "denouement" occurs.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE WITHOUT DRASTIC ACTION, U. S. HOPE

(Continued from Page 1.) Every day brings some new reason for waiting. Today it is the hope that the anthracite strike will be settled within a few days and that, when the people are assured of hard coal, removal of that hope is absolutely gone, there will be nothing done about the anthracite problem. As for the soft coal situation, the government fears that coal is not a result of the Cleveland treaty of peace to make government interference unnecessary, provided the coal can be transported. There the railroad shopman's strike, which has caused a shortage of coal, is a factor. One tale relates how 15,000 tons of coal was loaded on a Kentucky road by non-union miners and was ready for shipment as soon as equipment could be obtained and the discovery was made that every bit of hose between the cars had been cut.

Equipment Deteriorating

Waiting for trains is deteriorating according to the statistics of the Interstate Commerce commission. The federal government is not trying, however, to force a remedy. It is waiting for the railroads and shipping their respective powers of endurance. If this public finds it dangerous to travel, it will be a factor in the public opinion which the unionists will recognize when the time comes, but no halabala is being made sufficient in volume to cause the administration to use extreme tactics. Until matters get worse, little will be done by the government. In other words, the situation must grow worse before it can get better—that is the viewpoint here.

Opinion of Railroads on Country

Shipping concrete and demands it, the executive is inclined to let industrial nature take its course.

Meanwhile, War

Ten or fifteen days must elapse before the effects of this policy can be measured, unless of course there is a compromise or concession by one or another of the disputants which make a railroad peace possible. Meanwhile it's a war to the finish, with the government an arrogant onlooker. Secure of coal carrying roads is indeed the extreme alternative, but only in the last 24 hours has it become apparent how extreme and unlikely it is to be. No preparations are being made for it. The promises of the railroads that they will be able to carry coal if given adequate protection against violence are being taken at full value. Until the bread comes, the government will let the war go on.

measured, unless of course there is a compromise or concession by one or another of the disputants which make a railroad peace possible. Meanwhile it's a war to the finish, with the government an arrogant onlooker. Secure of coal carrying roads is indeed the extreme alternative, but only in the last 24 hours has it become apparent how extreme and unlikely it is to be. No preparations are being made for it. The promises of the railroads that they will be able to carry coal if given adequate protection against violence are being taken at full value. Until the bread comes, the government will let the war go on.

WILL BE LABOR DAY, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 4th

To Connect Up With This National Event

We Will Present The Million Dollar Comedian in His Million Dollar Production.

HAROLD LLOYD

"GRANDMA'S BOY"

A 5000-ft. Masterpiece of Laughs, Tears and Pathos.

Harold Lloyd in "Grandma's Boy" is a picture to be classified with "Way Down East," "Four Horsemen," "Orphans of the Storm," and the "Three Musketeers" with the exception that "Grandma's Boy" will appeal more to the general public as the picture is devoted, not exclusively to laughs, but to hours or gloomy days will be in the calendar during the engagement, but laughs, laughs, laughs.

No comedian has accomplished such a lengthy picture with so many laughs as Harold Lloyd. The New York World says: "A comparison is to be made of the business on our screen in the last year, honors must go to Harold Lloyd."

I take great pleasure to announce a few facts in regard to Harold Lloyd in "Grandma's Boy." We have bought and run quite a few separate productions with very high rentals. We have bought in the past, Harold Lloyd in both his single and double reel comedies, all the way from $15 to $250, but the price we are paying for "Grandma's Boy," his latest five-reel release, surpasses all the high rentals we have ever paid, bar none. Furthermore, we are pleased to inform you that we are showing "Grandma's Boy" ahead of the pro-release showing at the Roosevelt Theatre which just finished a four weeks' engagement. I personally recommend this picture very highly for I know everybody these days needs a hearty laugh and believe me, you will get it.

Miss Margaret S. Doane, Y. W. C. A. community girls' work secretary, arrived in the city Tuesday. Miss Doane will direct the activities provided for by the Lovejoy community trust fund and in accordance with the trust provisions her work will be community wide, will have as its objective the benefiting of girls 21 years of age and under, and will not be limited to work in the Y. W. C. A. quarters or to members of the Y. W. C. A.

Miss Doane is the first worker to be employed under the provisions of the Lovejoy fund. She is a young woman, pleasing personality and wide sympathies and will doubtless meet with large success in her work among the girls of Janesville. She has no definite plans to encourage as yet. She prefers to acquire a thorough understanding of the work that is expected under the provisions of the trust fund and a thorough knowledge of community needs before mapping her program which she feels will need to be developed with great care in order to accomplish the desired results.

Miss Hamilton, the new Y. W. C. A. general secretary, and Miss West, associate secretary, will also arrive in Janesville this week.

Few Names Added to Polling Lists

Only a few Janesville people registered on the new polling lists, Tuesday. Although the registration booths were open from 8 a. m. until 8 p. m., the booths were visited only by those who recently moved to the city or whose names were not on the old list. The new names will be copied on the previous list so on primary day no difficulty will be experienced by new voters.

According to City Clerk Ervin J. Sartell, nearly a score of Janesville people who will not be in the city Sept. 5 have made application to him for ballots. Within the last few days several marked ballots have been returned.

LUSE SENTENCES "MOON" PEDDLERS

Dougherty Takes Part in Cases Coming up at Superior.

Moonshine peddlers and prohibition violators are being given stiff sentences in the preliminary session of the postponed July term of the federal court in Superior this week. Sentences ranging from 30 days to nine months and fines from $50 to $100 were meted out by Judge C. Z. Lusa. U. S. District Attorney William H. Dougherty, Janesville, is present at the session and was instrumental in several convictions.

Attorney Dougherty made a plea to Judge Lusa for leniency in the case of Joseph Leslie, 30, Mercer, Wis., charged with the possession and sale of liquor and keeping a nuisance. Leslie, according to Mr. Dougherty, is an ex-service man and has displayed an excellent attitude towards the law since his apprehension in April. He was sentenced to 30 days in the Douglas county jail by Judge Lusa, who accepted the recommendation of the federal attorney.

Mr. Dougherty was given instructions by the court to investigate conditions in Mercer, where it is said moonshine making is carried on in a wholesale fashion and violations of the state prohibition laws are every day occurrences.

Other violators sentenced were: Frank Saylor, Saxon, nine months in house of correction; Charles Lang, Eau Claire, 30 days in county jail; Wilfred Lacombe, Superior, 30 days in jail; and Lawrence Nicholson, Eau Claire, $100 and costs.

The Cross-Cut

A Serial Story of the Colorado Mines

By Courtney Ryley Cooper.

Copyright by Little, Brown & Co.

SYNOPSIS

At Thornton Fairchild's death his son, Robert, learns there has been a dark period in his father's life which for almost 30 years has caused him suffering. The secret is hinted at in a document left by the elder Fairchild, which also informs Robert he is now owner of a mining claim in Colorado, and advising him to see Henry Damish, a lawyer.

Damish tells Robert his claim is a silver mine and warns him against a certain man, "Squint Rodaine," his father's enemy. Robert goes to the mining town and finds an old friend of his father's in Mother Howard, keeper of a boarding house where the father had stayed. He also rescued a girl from a predicament and turned away pursuers by giving them the wrong direction. An old Cornishman partner of his father's, turns up and they visit the mine, only to find it filled with dynamite. Robert also discovers that the girl he had rescued on the Denver road was the daughter of Squint Rodaine. Harry and Robert are warned to go home.

The judge adjusted his glasses and studied the information which the district attorney had laid before him. "In view of the number of charges and the seriousness of each, I must have an accurate list of five names, dollars, or twelve hundred fifty dollars for each case."

"Thank you; we had come prepared for more. Mr. Fairchild, who is Mr. Markings' partner, is here to appear as witness. The deeds are in his name alone, the partnership existing, as I understand it, upon their word of honor between them. I refer, Your Honor, to the deeds of the Blue Poppy mine. Would Your Honor care to examine them?"

His Honor would. His Honor did. For a long moment he studied them, and Fairchild, in looking about the courtroom, saw the battle in conversation with a tall, thin man, with squint eyes and a scar-marked forehead. A moment later the judge looked over his glasses.

"Yes, Your Honor."

"Have you any information regarding the value of the Blue Poppy mining claims?"

"Sir, I have just been talking to Mr. Damish. He says they're well worth the value of the bond."

"How about that, Rodaine?" The judge peered down the courtroom.

"They'll do," was his answer, and the judge passed the papers to the clerk of the court.

"Bond accepted. I'll set this trial for November 1st."

"Very well, Your Honor." Then he turned with a wide grin to his clients. "That's all until November."

Out they filed through the narrow aisle of the courtroom. Fairchild's hand was on the shoulder of Squint Rodaine as they passed. At the door, the attorney turned toward them, then put forth a hand.

"Drop in any day this week and see me. I'll be glad to announce cheerfully. 'We put one over on your royal jobs that time, you know. Hates me from the ground up. Worst we can hope for is a conviction and then a Supreme Court reversal. I'll get him so used he'll all the case with errors. He used to be an instructor down at Boulder, and I studied pages of a lecture together on him one day. That's why I asked for an early trial. Knew he'd give me a late one. That'll let us have time to stir up a little favorable evidence, which right now we don't have. Understand— all money that comes from the mine is held in escrow until this case is decided. But I'll explain that. Going to stick around here and back in the effluence of really possessing a case. Strong."

And he turned back into the courtroom, while Fairchild the dazed Harry stalling beside him, started down the street.

"Ow do you figure it?" asked the Cornishman at last.

"What?"

"Rodaine. 'E helped us out!'"

Fairchild stopped. It had not occurred to him before. But now he saw it; that if Rodaine, as an expert on mining, had condemned the Blue Poppy, it could have meant only one thing—the denial of bond by the judge and the lack of freedom for Harry. Fairchild rubbed a hand across his brow.

"Can't figure it," came at last. "And especially since his son is the scouser and since I got the best of them both last night!"

"Got the best of 'em? You?"

The story was brief in its telling. And it brought an explanation of the sudden amiability displayed by the crooked-faced Rodaine. They went on, striving vainly for a reason, at last to stop in front of the postoffice, as the postmaster leaned out of the door.

"Your name's Fairchild, isn't it?" asked the person of letters.

"Yes."

"Thought so. Some of the fellows said you was. There's been a letter for you here for two days."

"For me?" Vaguely Fairchild went within and received the message, a plain, brown envelope without a return address. He turned it over and

"What?"

"Rodaine. 'E helped us out!'"

BEAUTY CHATS by Edna Kent Forbes

HEALTHY NAILS
Recently I overheard a discussion between a manicurist and her patron concerning the appearance of nails before the days of professional manicuring. They agreed that the sight must have been deplorable. It occurred to me at the time that nails might not have looked so badly as they thought for people who had pride took particular care with their appearance. There was no temptation then to use acids on them to dissolve the dead cuticle. The life was called at your home since he said he would.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a married lady 21 years old and have a baby. I love my husband very much since he is gone. But while he was with me I did things that were very bad and he left me and the baby. He first took the baby with him and I went after it.
His is gone now and I do not know where he is. Will you please tell me what I can do to find him? He is 31 years old and is not jolly and does not like fun. I am so much that way. Can you tell me what I can do to not starved from the nail as it is often done today when it is coated with lotions to give a shiny surface. As a matter of fact, the nail depends upon health for its real beauty.

Healthy nails are transparent, shell pink, and should be flexible enough to bend easily without breaking. Such nails will have a natural polish and will be free from ridges. If we do not abuse the nails by rubbing them of the natural secretions, they would not require so much artificial attention. As the nail is part of the skin, it naturally follows that a dry skin will mean a dry and brittle nail, while an active skin will produce a supple nail, unless there is too much moisture in the blood. This alone will cause a dry and sticky nail.
The health of the nails, therefore, depends upon one's condition of health. If they are too dry rub them with plenty of oil and increase the circulation under them by a generous use of the buffer. This really amounts to exercising, and the resulting stimulation will bring the blood to the surface and not only beautify the nail but nourish it.

Margaret—Since the nose is the least observed of all the features, you may easily overcome the disadvantage of a badly shaped one by cultivating your other possibilities. The thing that counts most is what the features express, rather than their actual shape.
T. H. M.—For those fine lines that are appearing under your eyes, nourish the tissues under them with a good cream in which the is present of almond oil. An astringent used twice each week will also help.
May—Any oil will take curl out of the hair, so the curling fluid you use must be made from other ingredients.
Thursday—Significant Recent Defects.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are two girls 15 and 16 years of age. Our mothers approve of us going with boys. We have been going with two fellows for some time. Now they have quit asking us for dates. We like these fellows very much and would like to know the reason that they stopped so suddenly. Would it be proper to ask them if we offended them, or should we let it go?
is it proper for a girl to ask a boy for his photograph?
The other day one of us received a letter from one of these boys, asking her to meet him on a certain street corner. She had her doubts about his writing the letter, so she telephoned him and asked him if he wrote the letter. He said he did. She told him that if he wanted to see her he would have to go to her house, but he did not go. Later she found that he had not written the letter at all. Should he have come to the house as he said he would?
Do not ask the boys if you ordered them. They have simply lost interest in you and although they are friendly when you meet they do not care to call on you or take you places.
It is better taste not to ask for a photograph.
The boy certainly should have asked at your home since he said he would.

Dinner Stories

The discordant music rendered by the so-called orchestra had so upset one of the diners that he called the restaurant manager and remarked: "I note the paragraph on your menu wherein you state that the orchestra will play anything on request. Can you prove the assertion?"

"Yes, replied the manager. "Their repertoire is very extensive. 'What do you wish them to play?'"

"Tell me to play plachote until I have finished my meal and I will be very grateful," everybody's Magazine.

Johnson had been prosecuted for a rather doubtful offense.

"Jim," he said, the judge in his severest tone, "the jury has taken a very lenient view of the case. You have had a very narrow escape and it should be a lifelong warning to you. After that, you ought to keep away from bad company."

"Yes, your honor," replied Johnson. "Ye won't find me here again in a hurry."—San Francisco Chronicle.

The leading lady of an incoming theatrical company met the leading man of an outgoing troupe at a railway station. "Did you have a good house here?" she asked eagerly.

"No, pretty small," he admitted. "Too bad, but perhaps you got a lot of applause?"

"Well," he hesitated, "there was a dog that managed somehow to get into the place, and once I thought I noticed him wag his tail."—Pearson's Weekly (London).

Feel Weak, Tired, "All Played Out?"

Does the least exertion tire you out? Do you feel "blue" and tired, suffer dragging backache, headaches and dizziness? Too many women blame so-called "female troubles" for this unhappy state. Instead of weak kidneys, which so often are the cause, you must act quickly to prevent more serious trouble. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. They have helped thousands of weakened women. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

A Case in Jansville
Mrs. Arthur Fuller, 118 N. Terrace St., says: "My kidneys were giving me considerable trouble. My back ached continually and I couldn't sleep at night. In the morning, I could hardly dress myself and little flash lights would come before my eyes. I was nervous. As soon as I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, I was relieved and felt better in every way."

Jefferson Wins Kiwanis All Round Playground Pennant

SEASON'S HONORS WELL DISTRIBUTED BETWEEN SCHOOLS

Busy Man's Sport Page

NOTHING is more possible in Janesville, at the suggestion of the sports editor of the Gazette, Capt. Stoddard of the local cavalry troop, investigating the chances of training in the city. It is not a doubt that the public will flock to the fair grounds to see the contest.

THE BIG item is that of expense for equipment. The troop already has several ponies fitted for the games. Others could be procured, it is believed, when the military department is told of the greater interest the games would create in the national guard.

MALLETTS, balls, etc., would cost a fair sum to purchase. However, the money laid out for these could be returned from the gate receipts. People would come from distances around to view the games if a proper endorsement by the business men of the city and wide advertising.

THE TRAINING of the troops would receive a boost in the Janesville community. The troop would be such as could not be gained in many of the usual routine drills. The interest of the guardians would be increased if they would put forth greater effort to become finer soldiers. The troop would have a larger talking point for recruiting.

FURTHERMORE, the public would sit up and take notice of the Janesville troop. The people of the neighborhood communities would know this city has a cavalry organization. All this would be worth every cent of the initial cost and the upkeep. It is a proposition deserving the hearty support of the Bower city's civic organizations.

Six heats, including one in which three horses and drivers spilled, required before Anna Voletta won the trot at Des Moines.

Pools of Dillon A. Worthing captured three of four events on Grand circuit at Des Moines, Mass.

Evans Jones and Oulmet defeat English in Walker golf cup play at Southampton, L. I.

THREE PROMOTIONS AT MERCHANTS' BANK—Three young men received promotions Tuesday as a result of the decision of the board of directors of the Merchants and Savings bank. Joseph Nolan and Frank Glendon were promoted to the positions of assistant cashier and Maurice Smith was made auditor.

Mr. Nolan has been with the bank six years. Mr. Glendon and Mr. Smith three years. The positions were created for them, not made by vacancies.

The remainder of the force will stay as at present.

Horey Features Fast Auto Races at State Fair

BY FRANK SINGLAI
State Fair Grounds, Milwaukee—Cutting out in front of a veteran, Louis Disbrow, with whom he had waged a shifting battle for pace-making honors, Fred Horey, vet of the dirt track, took the lead on the home stretch and nipped the other driver to hold next Saturday's $1,000 sweepstakes automobile race here Tuesday afternoon. The time of the winner was 8:57.4, an average of 70 miles an hour. Disbrow was second, a third of a length to the rear.

In the stands, crowded with some 15,000, were 300 Janesville boosters who had motored to the fair to let Wisconsin know the Bower city is on the map.

Pover city fans rooted for Disbrow in his blue Frontenac. They remembered his appearance on the Janesville dirt track 11 years ago. "Dizzy" lifted the thick dust of the track in the first lap and held the lead until the fifth. Then the two leaders were nip and tuck until the checker flag was waved. Five started, the others were out because of motor trouble.

The feature of the day was the victory of A. Vennation, Chicago, in the special Ford race of five miles. Wednesday drove his car in from Aurora Tuesday morning. He appeared at the pits and asked if there was any money in sight for Ford cars. He was known and unheeded, he entered the race and finished a half mile ahead of the field. A. Markman, Chicago, drove the last two laps of this race on the rim after a blowout on the back stretch, finishing third.

It was a big day for Horey. In addition to driving the sweepstakes, he won the five mile free for all.

Attempts to lower the track record failed by more than two seconds.

First heat manufacturers' sweepstakes, five miles—G. Toft, Case Special, first; Irving Hoffman, Comet, second; King Kelley, Burgatt, third. Time—4:38.

Second heat manufacturers' sweepstakes, five miles—L. Disbrow, Frontenac, first; Fred Horey, Fiat, second; C. Baumgart, Chevrolet, third. Time—4:38.

Free for all, five miles—Fred Horey, Fiat, first; Louis Disbrow, Frontenac, second; G. Toft, Case Special, third. Time—4:38.

One mile trials to determine position of starters in Milwaukee city championships, open only to Milwaukee drivers, to be held next Saturday.

Trudell, Briggs, 55.74; Nowicki, Dowmet, 57.74; Baumgart, Chevrolet, 58.74; Caswell, Ford, 57.74; Magnus Dusenberg, 1:05; Ed. Chapman, Ford, 56.

Finals, ten miles, manufacturers' sweepstakes—Fred Horey, Fiat, first; Louis Disbrow, Frontenac, second; A. Vennation, Ford, third. Time—8:57.4.

Mitchell Loses by Slight Shade to John Tillman

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
MILWAUKEE—Appearing before a capacity crowd of 4,000 at Monona park, Johnny Tillman of St. Paul shaded Pinkie Mitchell of Milwaukee here Tuesday night. The local papers called the bout a draw, while Milwaukee gave it to Mitchell.

For eight rounds, Tillman outpointed Mitchell, using a left to the face. They both milled in the last round, Pinkie backing Tillman to the ropes and making him groggy. It is the consensus that Mitchell was holding in for his coming fight with O'Brien at Milwaukee.

Lou Rollinger, Freeport, outpointed Jack Monahan, Madison, Jack Naumay, Rockford, shaded "Dummy" Roberts, Madison. Battling Nelson, Madison, in his first appearance in the ring, won from Leo Trainer, Madison, on a foul in the second round. The opinion is that Nelson would have won in the long run.
